Such a beautiful little girl!! I know she is loving life in heaven, but I know there is a huge hole in your life on earth. My tears come for you often - a song, a baby that looks like Payton - you will never know when it is going to hit you! Let the tears flow, it doesn't mean you are weak or not leaning on God, but means you have deep love for your little girl who will be in your hearts forever!! Love you both, Donna Brinkley

Brittany and Alex, I'm sending my heart felt sympathy to you and your families. Brittany, I am a good friend of Bob and Cheryl Newman and I've watched you grow from a young responsible sister into a loving wife and mother. I only remember meeting Payton and Alex at one of the Newman parties but I've heard about all of you much more often. The loss you are grieving is unimaginable and will take time to heal. The roller coaster of emotions will not be easy and we are all praying that the support of family and friends will help you get through such a difficult time. I've seen many pictures of your beautiful "baby girl", including ones from her last day and I hope it gives you some peace knowing that she had such a great day and did not appear to suffer in any way. She is so beautiful and was given her angel wings too soon... that must mean she was more special than anyone knew and God needed her help in Heaven and could not wait. Never stop talking about her and keep the memories of your precious "baby girl" alive in your hearts forever. She will be deeply missed but not forgotten. Sympathy and prayers...Jackie Goodwin

I just learned of the news of Payton's passing. I am so sorry for your loss. She was a very special little girl. I loved being one of Payton's teachers she was such a loved and loving child. She liked playing ball and hugging the other babies in the classroom. She was learning so much language and she smiled all the time. She had a spirit that lit up an entire room.
