Angie: This is your cousin formerly from Montreal now Toronto - I came upon Peter's obituary. I was surprised that he died so recently. Unfortunately, family don't always keep in touch. I was reading that you live in California. Not sure if you'll read this, but if you do, how are you spending these days with Covid-19? I'm lucky to work in the financial sector, so I get to go to work everyday. Do give me some of your news. I can be reached at carolineviel@hotmail.com

Peter was a light in my life for many years. He always talked about how he wished to be with his family. I hope he is having a great reunion right now. Peter and I hung out when he came to Onondaga blvd. ARC He enjoyed bowling and playng bingo at the salvation army. I think his greatest joy was going to Denny,s for a hamburger done his way. He told me many nice stories about his family and his childhood.Later I had the pleasure of buying a house next to Lillian who showed me some great pictures of Peter as a child. My favorite was a picture of Peter sitting on a horse. Peter will alwasy be in my heart-- untill I see you again Peggy Voll
