To The family of Anthony Verone from the staff of one south: We wish to extend our condolences and sympathies for your loss. We are reminded of Anthony each time we pass his room and miss him greatly. We have many fond memories of Anthony, John and his family. Anthony's absence from the front entrance with greetings and friendliness are a loss to all who knew him and stopped for a moment to talk with him, coming and going from visits, and by the residents who gathered there each day and evening. Anthony was never anything but a gentleman and made no complaint even in his most uncomfortable moments and always treated us kindly. His dignity and calm perseverance under such difficult times and through so many losses was inspirational to us all. John and his family did all they could to see to his comfort and so much to support him through the years he lived at James Square. You made a remarkable difference in his life and in his time of need. It meant a great deal to Anthony and you made a real difference in his life each day. Bill Bender
