I worked with Andy at the Johnson Center. He was a kind, helpful and thoughtful man and a model of humanity. We can all only aspire to these attributes. We will be at such a loss to not have Andy in our building with his smiling face and kind words. He was wonderful with kids and adults and we will all miss him terribly. My thoughts and prayers are with you all but take comfort in the lives he touched so positively. I am fortunate to have known such a fabulous person.
