I will never forget going to Michelle's (my best friend) house and saying hi to Madeline (grandma). She would always smile the biggest smile and give the biggest hugs. I will miss that and hearing her say "huh" "what did you say?". She will be missed dearly and thought of often. Love always Theresa

I will never forget My Grandmother, all Sunday dinners she cooked for us while Mom and Dad had to work, all the baking and wonderful cooking she did. All the afghans she made for the family. All of us grandchildren looked forward to going over to her house and felt sad when we had to leave. We will never forget all our wonderful memories with her. She was truly a beautiful, loving & sincere lady.

I will forever remember her beautiful smile, her laugh, her love of life, the way she made you feel at home, the shopping trips, the story of Sergio De Leme, the endless hours of cooking and canning in the basement and all the recipes I have learned to make because of her. And most of all her love of all her family. She will continue to live on in our hearts. I was blessed to have had an Aunt as wonderful as she. Prayers to her family as they grieve her passing. But know now she is with Uncle Sal who she has so missed. Hold on to the wonderful memories as there are so many. Kristin
