To the family of Michael..We only met him once when he came to our house for an estimate, but upon talking to him, it felt like he was a part of our family. He told us of his wife passing and how much it affected him. We knew, when we had our roof done, we would call him. Unfortunately, that never happened, but he left a mark on our family that we will never forget! Prayers to his family!

Mike and I developed an instant friendship when I came to Syracuse in 2012. We talked about business and family and I know first hand how much he loved his kids. We never had a conversation without him mentioning at least one of them. I had a lot of respect for him and will miss him greatly. May he rest in peace. Gary Jenkins-ABC Supply, Buffalo, NY

Kayla and family....I am so sorry to hear of your father's passing. It saddens me to think of the grief and sorrow you are feeling in your hearts. Try to remember that he would not want you to grieve for long and that he is rejoicing in the presence of our Lord. Sorrow for his loss, but celebrate his life also. Lifting you all up in healing prayers. Irene & Ashley Kersey
