Dad, Not a day passes when I don't selfishly wish you were still here, although I know you needed to rest. You were ALWAYS my protector and sign of strength...please send me some each day for acceptance and courage for all the changes ahead, I love you very much and wish with all my heart we could have protected you more and saved you from all your pain, and worry. I promise to continue to honor your wishes and protect and take care of mom always. I love and miss you.....Kelli

So sorry for your loss. I have missed seeing Wayne's truck driving around the neighborhood. I am forever grateful that I ran into him in Shop City a few weeks ago., Many of my students still talk about the dances he did with Wendy. It is a memory for us all. I guess at the time, I was surprised by the talent he showed. Little did we know that he missed his calling as a dancer. Thanks for the laughs and good times Wayne. You left your mark on many people.Louise Epolito

What a surprise to read of Wayne's death. We were totally unaware of his illness. We remember Wayne, and his family, from family times with his parents. We also recall the part he played in one of his nephew Mitch's dramas. It was always a pleasure to be with him and to have him in or church services. Please know that you are in our hearts and prayers, today. Pastor Loyal and wife Beverly
