To us in Alplaus, where I also grew up, he was known as Kenny Coyle. I lived on the same street with him. I recall I used to have a "crush" on Kenny. I was surprised to hear he worked in California for awhile as I was unaware of that and I live in Ca. I have fond memories of Ken (Christian) and we all so much enjoyed growing up in beautiful Alplaus. I did not know he was ill, but the notice was forwarded to me today. It is doubly hard to lose a loved one at Christmas. He actually passed on the same exact date as my late husband. May God give you, his family, His strength and hold you in His strong embrace is my prayer for you. What a wonderful marriage - 45 years. I can only imagine how difficult separation makes that, but we have God's promise that if we have given our lives to Him, there will be no permanent separation as one day we will be reunited so hold fast to His promise. God be with you, Minister Linda Gray Calderon
