Please accept our condolences, for the loss of a really great guy. I am sure that you will not know my family or me, but we all knew and loved Tony. We are the original owners and operators of Hooligans Café and Sports Bar in Liverpool. From 1992 when we opened until 2003 when we sold our business, Tony was a regular, he stopped in just to say high on his walk, we all enjoyed seeing Tony and hearing of his stories and relationship with the former owners of our establishment. Just recently on one of our trips up north from our home in Florida, we bumped into Tony and we had a few laughs. We will truly miss Him. Our prayers are with you all Jeff, Mary Jane, Jim and Jeff Ippoliti

My sincerest and deepest sympathy to the entire Romano family. Anthony "Tony", was a dear friend of my Uncle Al's and he truly did have a smile that would truly grab you when you walked into the same room he was in. I wish you all a gentle hike as you all begin your grief journeys. Peace and love to all of you. Donna
