Jeannie & family, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember all the laughs we had years ago, playing pool and cards while tipping back back a few beers! Seems like yesterday. Know you are all in my thoughts and prayers. There's a pleasure in the knowing and a pleasure in the new, There's a sadness in the going and this I know is true. There's a journey in a lifetime, where each must make their way, But remember after darkness there comes a brand new day. So when the night is darkest, and you find it hard to bear, Remember, when you are lonely, that He is always there. Unknown God Bless!!

Jeff and I were saddened to hear that Richard passed away. All of you were such great support when we lost Randy. It was appreciated. It's too bad we kind of lose touch with people over time, but know that thoughts and prayers are with you as you grieve the loss of Richard. Have faith in the hope that you'll see him again in Heaven.

Aunt Jeannie, Debbie, Richard & Family, I am sorry for your loss. My heart is heavy. We all lost an amazing man who touched the lives of all those he ever came in contact with. We will miss him dearly. He was the one who was there for all of us when we lost dad. I know deep in his heart he knew how much he was appreciated and loved. We had a wonderful time at his 60th birthday party and he was so delighted that we all were able to get together for such a fun and happy time. I will always remember that great big smile he had. We will always have that fond memory of who broke the bed when Dawn and I were visiting. Uncle Richard really knew who done it. I know he is the guardian angel who will be looking upon all of us. I know he will keep dad and Fran in line. Lord knows someone has to. RIP Uncle Richard. Love and miss you dearly. Cindy

My daddy, my hero, my first love.....you will always be the most amazing man I will ever know. You were always there for me - to help me, to guide me, to teach me, and to rescue me. You have shown my kids and I the meaning of true love in all that you have ever done. You definitely set the bar high and showed us what a real man is - what my daughter and I should expect from a man and how my boys should act as real men. You will always be remembered and I will miss you forever. My kids and I lost the best dad we could have ever asked for. Rest in peace daddy and fly high until we meet again. I love you so much and my kids do as well. - Your little girl
