I would like to extend my sympathies to all of you. While I haven't seen your mother in several years, I will always remember coming into the office to work and having such nice visits with her. I hope in this time of sorrow that all the memories of your mom that make you smile stay in the forefront of your mind.

My deepest heartfelt sympathy to Don, Joey, Janann and Carol and the entire family for the passing of Rita. Even though I haven't been in your lives for 25 years I have thought of all of you often. I will never forget the Sunday dinners, she made the best meatballs and she would often catch me taking one out of the pan before dinner was ready. Every time I eat one I think of Rita and say "No one makes meatballs like my ex-mother-in-law." I am so very sorry and you will always be in my prayers. Donna (Rankin) Lilly
