Ann and Rosario - I am so sorry to hear about your mom's passing - even sorrier for being out of town and missing paying my respects. I always enjoyed talking to her and the memories of our parents getting together when we were younger will be forever with me. Thinking about you all and God Bless you during this difficult time. Rosario and family, I am truley sorry for your loss. Maria was a beautiful spirited woman and I will never forget her. I am thankful that I was with her the night she had to be transfered to the ICU because I was able to kiss her goodbye. It was a pleasure to take care of her and be with your family. Remember all the beautiful moments that you had with your mother and keep her spirit alive. Jessica 1-8.

Tucker and I went looking for a star. We went down the driveway not very far. We saw the Big Dipper up above. We picked a star on the handle to symbolize Maria's love. Of course it will remind all of us too, all the good cooking she used to do. The world has truly lost a special person and Heaven has gained an Angel. I hope Maria and Nicola are dancing. We are so sorry for your loss. Ann your Mom knew how very much she was loved. With much sympathy, Linda Zuti

Maria - we will forever remember your warm smile and heart full of love. Our family is blessed to have known you for so long. We will miss you. Ross and Anne we are always here for you.
