Mary Anne, Ed & Family, Susan, Dave & Family, and Kathy, Julius & Family, I am so, so sorry for the loss of this amazing mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt and friend. Aunt Mabel was always a wonderful aunt, had an infectious laugh, was a generous kind soul. I am so sad I did not get to visit her more often. We always have regrets and I wish I had taken just a little bit more time out of my life to see her again. My thoughts are with all of you during this difficult time. All my love always to such an amazing family. Cousin Margie Never forget the three amigos.

Dear Perotti Family!! I was so fortunate to visit my dear Aunt Mabel on January 31st of this year (2015) with my own mother, Gladys. I felt blessed that we had time to spend with Aunt Mabel, and I will always have many fine memories of staying in Syracuse with her and Uncle Dick when I was just a kid, and after Uncle Dick passed away I would still go visit Aunt Mabel and we'd talk and talk politics and other funny stuff! Aunt Mabel had the cutest giggle that always made me want to hug her. I'm glad I video'ed both Mom and Aunt Mabel and took the attached picture in January. I hope by sharing these, you will know how deep my condolence is to her immediate family and to everyone that knew and loved Aunt Mabel. She, like my recently departed husband Ardeshir, and my kind brother-in-law Ed Spencer are now at rest. We are left to love and care for each other for our time will come too. Love to all, Ellie Ommani (DiRisio) Aunt Mabel always called me "Eleanor".
