Angelo- My wonderful friend Loretta will be missed. The last time I saw her she and I went to the turning Stone and had a great time. After that I lost track of her. I remember coming over to your house after school so many times. She really loved you. God Bless You and may He help you through this pain.The former Rita Giamartino now Rita Theriault

Angelo - I hadn't seen Loretta in a very long time. We bowled together in the 80s and partied together some. There are still times when her favorite song from that time by Dianna Ross will be playing and I will say "Where's Loretta?" She is remembered. Sally McSween and Mary Lou Cornelius
