John B. Husted

JUN 20, 1921 - OCT 28, 2011

John B. Husted, 90, of Westfield, MA, passed away Friday at Renaissance Manor in Westfield. He was born in Syracuse, NY to Mary A. (Miller) and Herbert B. Husted. John was a member of University United Methodist Church for sixty years before moving out of the Syracuse area. He was a World War II Veteran of the Mediterranean Theater, having served in the Army Air Corps from 1942 to 1945. His career of radio and electrical service started at Morris Distributing, during which he installed the first sound system in the Onondaga County War Memorial. He spent 19 years working for General Electric as a research technician, and retired after ten years at O. M. Edwards. Hard work was John's ethic, but time spent in the Adirondacks with family was his joy.

John is survived by his loving wife of 59 years, Mary (Smith) Husted; four sons, Wayne (Loretta) of Elbridge, Daniel (Lisa) of Baldwinsville, Timothy (Linda) of Ansbach Germany and David (Esther) of West Springfield, MA; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Family and friends may call at the THOMAS J. PIRRO JR. FUNERAL HOME, 3401 Vickery Rd. (corner of Buckley Rd.) North Syracuse on Wednesday from 4 to 6 P.M. with a funeral service to follow immediately after. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Hospice of your choice.

I know it has been many years since Mr. Husted passed away, but I just came across his name in my dad's notebook which he kept during his service time with the Army Air Corp. He and Mr. Husted were friends while stationed at Seymour Johnson Field in North Carolina. My dad, Ralph Wyatt, passed away on August 5, 2013 at the age of 89. God's Blessings upon those reading this and a big thank you to Mr. Husted for befriending my dad and, I'm sure, making his days in the Army Air Corp more pleasant!

As far back as I can remember I've always written Grampa on correspondences, spelled just that way because he is something special and deserved to be acknowledged as such. I told him that once, I suspect he already knew..... and that's what makes him Grampa.
