I met Annette probably @ 45 years ago when I was introduced to the extended Bisesi/Indivero family. Annette's father was my mother in law's (Rose Bisesi) brother. I met the welcoming Indivero family about the time I married Rose and Joe's son, Sam. I will always remember Annette as being one of the most welcoming members. I am so sorry for your loss, Aunt Faye and all. My heart aches for you. Joanne Bisesi

I met Annette 38 years ago at the Indivero home. Whenever we would go there, I was always amazed at how caring she was to Joseph, and his friends. Whether it was a family function, or just Bocce Ball in the back yard, she always was so caring for Joe's friends, and I was lucky enough to be one of those. Our prayers are with your family.
