So sad to hear of the passing of my mom's closest friend, Rosemary. I loved her purple house. She gave me my first pair of cuticle scissors and told me I was pretty. Funny how little things like that stick with you ... 40 years later. Rest in peace dearest neighbor.

So sorry to hear of Rosemary's passing. She was like a second mom to me growing up next door and was my mom's best friend. She also had the special ability to know the moment we drove up to our house for a visit with our dad and would come right over to catch up. Now that she and my dad are both gone, Oakley Drive will never be the same. PS I still own a few Tupperware pieces she gave me when I left for college 😊 RIP Ro Mary P

I was looking up a Syracuse schoolmate when I saw Rosemary's obituary. Even though I left the neighborhood at age nine, I never forgot how sweet your mama and daddy were. We saw them often at the farmer's market, and they always had a word and a smile for my sister Linda and me. Your mama always said hello to me every time she saw me walking down the street. All of you were lovely! I wish you love and comfort, and blessings for the future days to come. Margaret Matthews Wilkie

And this is my one picture that so much depicts Rosemary coming out with drinks and snacks in the famous Tupperware containers.
