Diane, Elaine, MaryAnn & Bob, Rich and Danny. Sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. Living next door for years and then the "big move" across the street, there virtually wasn't a day gone by, when we all lived on DeWitt Street, that "Mrs. Lansing's" infectious smile wasn't seen and appreciated. She always gave her "wave" across the fence and saying hello in the most friendliest manner, no matter what was going on. (Of course all of us "kids" were always "angels", i.e. when we were sleeping, as our Mom used to say.) My parents had nothing but high praise for both of your parents. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the Lansing and Cappelletti families at this time. Tony & Lisa Liccione & Family.
