The women in this amazing family have the gift of making time fly by way too fast. I could never imagine someone so welcoming. So appreciative of the simplest things. I'm so thankful that I was invited into her loving home. Thank you so much for patience and kindness. I'm so sad that I never got to say goodbye, but I'm so thankful for the moments you all shared with me. Thank you so much Sincerely, Will and Kris Fried.

Mike, Meghanne, Joe, Mrs Schulke and Barb, I have no words to describe how saddened we were to learn of Peg's illness. Peg was a friend to everyone and a woman of great strength. You were her world and her passion. The hearts of many who were blessed to know her are broken today. I wish, with all my heart, that I could take away your pain. May God grant you all peace.

Peggy was a rare person. She always made people feel special & appreciated. She is the first person I met when I started working at Wegmans back in 1973 and my first friend at Wegmans. I was lucky enough to have her friendship for for 43 years. The world lost a beautiful person who will never be replaced. You are truly going to be missed by so many Peggy. May your next journey be as special as you are. Love you & miss you.
