Uncle Lou:You will always be a part of my heart and soul. From the days when we were small children screaming and yelling at Christmas Eve on Delhi St, to the day we cried in the hallway at St Joe's as my Dad lay dying. You and Dad weren't just brothers, you were best friends all the through your lives. You were a role model for all us, kind, intelligent, gentle man. We will miss you!! know you are in a better place with all your friends and family, playing cards, arguing politics and drinking wine. You are always in my thoughts and prayers.Vin Adornato

Only had the pleasure of meeting Louis once. We went to Marie's house for a game of Balderdash a few months ago. Louis played, and he was so good at it, and he was so funny!! He was witty, and a joy to spend an evening with. I know that God is welcoming into heaven with joy. God bless the family at this sad parting.
