There wasn't conversation. No exchanging glance of eyes. Tonight, at your bedside, we all said our goodbyes. Looking down upon you, as you laid there soft and sweet. We knew that mom was calling. You're on your way to heaven with God waiting at the door.(February 9th 1920- February 11th 2012) He's all your's Mom?Thank You Pirro'sYou did a wonderful job. Words can not express how sad I am, I had one Uncle and one Aunt and that is all I needed. They were both there to be my buffer between me and my mother. Always with understanding and love. I know heaven is complete with all the Toteda's. I love you " Duck", and will al ways be grateful for you and Aunt Pearl. Rest you are now home.

I was three years old when I first remember Uncle Don. So he's been around our family for my entire life. He was always a good guy who loved his family and who was devoted to his wife, Aunt Pearl. They had one of the most stable and loving marriages I've known. When she passed away a few years ago, he had his daughters to take care of him. If you look through the photo albums on Uncle Don's Facebook page, it's filled with people who are hugging him... people of all ages, including babies, kids, and teenagers. They all loved Uncle Don. It will be hard to imagine life without him...
