Hey, Damion. You have been on my mind so much lately.. all of our memories just flashing through my head. We shared the best of times!! I can think of so many inside jokes we had like it all just Happened yesterday. We went through a lot together in the amount of time we known each other. I met someone that reminds me so much of you but it's not the looks or the way he talks even... it's his spirit that I recognize to be very similar to yours (which is truly one of a kind) and he's originally from New York which makes it even crazier. I called Sunny up and said hey if you were to take a guess who does he remind you of? Right away she said "Damion" then didn't know why lol my mom disagrees completely but we know she's a little crazy.... also been encountering so many people who play guitar and every single time they play I just hear you. I'm going to learn how to play just so I can play "hey there Delilah" I hope for you to be with me when that happens ☐ well I could go on and on but I just wanted to stop by and say hi. Until we meet again 🙏 sweet angel. ☐ Oh I almost forgot to ask... if you happen to see Luis the dog up there give him a little "air pet" for me 😊😊

I haven't had the chance to grieve over your death Damion. Not sure I even want too. I wish I had more pictures. I wish I could of had the chance to say goodbye. I wish I had something physical of yours just to hold onto. I wish I would have had more time being your friend. Just like our good friend jay who passed a few years before you, I thought that in this living life, I had the time to runite with you guys. I took time and the future for grant it though. I thought there would always be a time when you would come back to Philly, and I would run into you, and we could pick up our friendship where we left off. Knowing that it will never happen like that is very upsetting. I have been thinking about you a lot since I found out you passed away. I can't help but think of your beautiful girls too who I have the pleasure of watching grow. We shared a ton of memories, laughed with each other, cried with each other, and hit a lot of milestones in our own lives together. You taught me more then you ever knew. You were my best friend. I knew that amazing damion. The damion with realistic hopes and dreams. The good guy Dam. I'm so angry and upset that I will never see you in this form here on earth again. I will still pray for you since I know prayers make you stronger where you are. I will think about you always, and I promise to do at least one great thing for your daughters before I die. I love you dearly, and I pray that you are free now. I guess this is my goodbye to you for now. Love ya Dam.
