Sarah Cutri

JAN 27, 1919 - MAR 3, 2012

Sarah (Urciuoli) Cutri, 93, formerly of Syracuse, passed away Saturday at the Royal Palm Heath Care Facility surrounded by her loving family. She lived in Syracuse and wintered in Vero Beach, Florida for many years. After the passing of her husband, Vincent D. Cutri who was an avid Oneida Lake fisherman and WWII veteran, she moved to Vero Beach to be with her children and grandchildren. Sarah loved riding her 3 wheel bike where she lived in Ranchland Park. There, she would greet everyone with her warm smile and gentle nature. Sarah was always happy to make complete strangers feel like longtime friends. She was also predeceased by several brothers and sisters. Sarah is survived by her son, Vincent J. Cutri of Vero Beach and Syracuse; her daughter, Rosanne (Edward) Fecca of Vero Beach; 10 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, a sister, Anna Falcone of Henderson, Nevada; several nieces, nephews, great- nieces and great-nephews. Funeral services will be held on Thursday at 11:00 am in the THOMAS J. PIRRO JR. FUNERAL HOME, 3401 Vickery Rd. (corner of Buckley Rd.) North Syracuse, NY. Burial will follow in Assumption Cemetery. Family and friends may call at the THOMAS J. PIRRO JR. FUNERAL HOME on Wednesday from 4:00 to 7:00 pm. Contributions may be made to Huntington's Disease Society of America.

When we first retired to Florida we lived down the street from Vince & Sarah. They were a lot of fun & your Dad would say Let's go to the trough for supper. I remember Sarah at the parties putting balloons down the front of her shirt & dancing. She was so funny. I'm glad she's home with Vinnie & all the other Ranchers who have gone ahead. I will keep you all in my prayers. Love, Marge Evans
