Anna E. (Bucci) Orbino-Barber

FEB 7, 1918 - OCT 11, 2016

Anna E. (Bucci) Orbino-Barber, “Auntie”, 98, of North Syracuse, passed away Tuesday at The Cottages at Garden Grove in Cicero. She was born in Syracuse, daughter of the late Antonio and Antoinette (Picciano) Bucci. Anna was a self-employed hairstylist for over 60 years, finally retiring in 2010 at the age of 92. She enjoyed traveling and gardening; she also loved to entertain and cook for family and friends.

She was predeceased by her first husband, Paul Orbino; her second husband, Warren Barber; her son, Paul D. Orbino; four brothers and three sisters.

Anna is survived by her son, Michael (Linda) Orbino; four grandchildren, Christopher, Adam (Yvonne), Michael, and Anthony; 10 great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to THOMAS J. PIRRO JR. FUNERAL HOME.

Michael and Family, On behalf of our Mom, Nancy Pompo, we were very saddened to hear of the loss of your mother. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Nancy and Anne were best of friends for many, many years, and sadly were not able to keep in touch over the past year and a half. She was a wonderful friend and always had words of advice for us! She will be missed. Nancy, Bob, and Marilyn

Mike and Family, Lee and I were saddened to hear about the death of your mother and our "Auntie." I have very fond memories of many years that my mother Kate and your mother would sit at our kitchen table for hours just talking and talking. Auntie Anna was a "fixture" in my life during all of my growing-up years, and then some. Even after her living for such a long time, we both know how difficult it is to lose a parent, but especially to lose your mother. Peace to you and your family. Your cousin, Tony Bucci
