To the Family...so loved by Lucy, For 13 years I served as the Volunteer director at St. Joseph's and every Friday, Lucy, one of the 'Friday Volunteers' sat with a group of other dedicated ladies and collated admission papers. Lucy loved absolutely loved her family and talked about the gatherings at her home every Sunday where all her children and loving family had a meal. She was a lady of elegance and grace and very religious. I was sorry when I opened the computer today and read of her passing.since we dont get a daily paper and I rarely read the Sunday's news I wasn't aware of her death. Know for sure Lucy is enjoying a wonderful eternal reward. I would make sure she had top-notch seating in God's home and I am just a person. Imagine the wonder God saw in her. Love, peace and many blessings and my prayers for all.Sister Myra Richards, OSF
