Lorraine, LuAnn, Peter, Lori and the whole Lobello Family, My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Death brings an end to pain and pressures I'm sure that Vi is happy and has been reunited with Linda and Pete. I had many great times with her. She treated me just like a daughter and wouldn't let Linda and me get away with anything. She'd be waiting up for us when we'd sneak in early in the AM. She always had words of warning and also great advice. Love ya Vi give Lin a hug for me. Susan Seeger Schad

Luann and Lorraine, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember back in the day how happy your Mom was when she returned from the Turning Stone, even when she did not win. I also loved the way you would sit down next to her and she would grab your hand so tightly, and smile with her eyes. I know she must have been a wonderful Mother, and you gals were so supportive of her in her final years. She couldn't have asked for more. You will be in my prayers. Kim Collins/RN
