In searching for him today, I found this. So sorry. We knew him during our dancing years and he loved to dance! He'd always search me out for a west coast swing. Quite a character. My husband, Tom, and he would swap stories and talked of coming over to shoot pool. We have many fond memories.

Dear Jim,I am so sorry to hear of your Dad's death. My deepest sympathy to you, James and your family. It is so painful to lose your parent and yet we know it is better for them to be with the Lord. His pain and suffering are over.It was a joy to watch him over the years cheering on our children. He and your mom were a joy to know. I fondly remember your Christmas holiday parties and your parent's wonderful company. I will never forgot his smile and his fun ways.May the Lord comfort you during this painful time of loss. We will be praying for you.Love,Mary Donnelly Cutler
