Dear Tony, Ran into you a couple of weeks ago, great reunion. Talked of old days on the railroad, old friends, old times. Our fathers' days on the New York Central Railroad and our younger days (our corvette days) . . . good times. Before then, we've accidentally run into each other a dozen or two times during the past 50 or so years. Always enjoying our conversations "catching up." I was shocked to get the belated news of your passing. Big surprise - I had no idea of your failing health. So very, very sorry I couldn't say goodbye . . . Goodbye, old friend. Praying for you. Tony Archino
