Binky you were a good part of my life and I really loved you. I wish I had known you were sick. I wish someone had told me so I could have come to your funeral. I am so sad to learn this terrible news almost a year late. I am so sorry for everyone that loved you and has lost you. I looked you up to tell you that our Muffin had to be put to sleep last week. My grief is now doubled. RIP dear BinkyStace

I was so sorry to read of Binky's passing. I remember her fondly when we were kids attending Bishop Forey Day Camp. I have thought of her many times throughout the years. God bless her and her family.

I'm so sorry to hear this today. I have fond memories of Binky in our younger years. Kind of a "little sister" and a friend. We had fun together. Sad, way to young to have gone through the tough fight. I pray for her & the whole family.

Far too many years too late but my grief today is fresh. I wish I would have stayed in touch when I left Bentwaters/Woodbridge. I wish I would have searched harder for you every time I thought about you. I wish you could know how proud I am to know you followed your dream! Rest in peace my friend, my roomie, my "maid of honor". You mattered Bink and I will see you again.
