To the Companion and the Burnam Family.. I am so sorry about Uncle Joe. I will never forget all the parties at Dan And Beths house and him saying " come on just one more orange soda no one will know" Right now he probably starting his own band in heaven. .Good Bye Uncle Joe and rest in peace. You will be missed . Love Patty Ostuni

To the entire Burnam family: I'm so sorry about the passing of "Uncle Joe." Whenever I saw him he had a smile on his face and his laughter was wonderful. Some of my favorite memories growing up include the Burnam family and "good Ol' Joe." Please accept my sympathy and may God bless your entire family at this time. Joe Andaloro Syracuse

Whenever I smell pipe tobacco I will think of you. I didn't know you quiet as well as I wish I did these past years but when I think of you I will remember the sound of your voice and your love for life. Thank you for being there for all of us while we were growning up. You are by far one of the greatest men I know.

I will always remember the first time I ever saw Joe ! My Mom brought him home to meet us kids and she asked me to come out of my room to meet him and i replied" nope! " And eventually I came out to meet him !And the first thing that came out of my mouth was" You have fake teeth !" And he just smiled at me with that charming smile of his and said "Yes honey I do !"He ended up being my father figure for the next 30 years of my life and I'm very happy for that !! will always remember you and I will miss you and love you dearly ,Daddy Joe !!!!May God bless you !!!And R.I.P.!!!!
