Mary was my best friend. How wonderful to meet her and form this truly remarkable friendship. Every morning at 6 AM we would meet and have coffee at our residence- The Villa. She was always so thoughtful of my husband Jim. I feel her presence, and will carry her memory with me always. I love you Mary. Madeline and James Hall

I will never forget how Aunt Mary stepped up when my Uncle Paul passed away. We were all in shock. Mary arrived, and although she was distraught, she quickly composed herself, helped Aunt Anne with decisions, and then started placing calls to other family members so we didn't have to. She was a magnificent woman. And the Christmas Eves spent at Aunt Anne's house. Wonderful, wonderful times. We'll miss her, but we are so happy she's with Uncle Jimmy again. Rest in peace, Aunt Mary.
