Michele and I were introduced by her cousin, Alex who was a great friend of ours. Michele and I took up a friendship quickly. Michele was the manager of the convenient store next to my hubby's business and I would often stop in to say Hello. One day, we were talking about how great it would be if this store implemented a RED BOX for movies out in front of the store. Michele thought it was a great idea and she asked her upper management and they said NO. Since that day, my hubby and I would take pics of Red Boxes that we would see around the area and send them to Michele. It was then, that we use to call Michele #redbox because she would laugh and laugh and laugh at all the pics we would send to her. Michele was ONE OF A KIND and they sure don't make them like her anymore. Loving, Generous, Kind and would HELP ANYONE in a pinch when needed. Michele, I will never FORGET YOU, your wild and bubbly personality and our long, deep conversations. I LOVE YOU and until we meet again, my friend, FLY HIGH.
