Michael Carmen DiCarlo

MAY 24, 1924 - MAY 24, 2012

Michael Carmen DiCarlo, 88, of Liverpool, passed away peacefully on Thursday at his home. He was born in Syracuse, the son of Phillip and Rose (Panebianco) DiCarlo and was a 1942 graduate of North High School. Michael served with the US Army during WWII and was awarded the Purple Heart after being wounded shortly after D-Day. After his honorable discharge from the Army, Michael worked for Prosperity Company. There he met and fell in love at first sight with the love of his life, Vera Marie Esgro. They married and had two children. In 1965 Mike and his sister-in-law's husband, Rich Vaughn found a small lake in Ontario and built cottages next to each other. The cottage became Mike's second passion, after his family. He was employed with the US Postal Service, retiring in 1986 after over 30 years of service, then worked part-time as a driver for the Ramada Inn. Michael was a member of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Adoration Society. He was an avid fisherman and looked forward to spending summers at the cottage. He also enjoyed golf and loved gardening. Michael was known for his amazing tomatoes, his rose garden, his homemade sausage and award winning meatballs. Michael also enjoyed putting together jigsaw puzzles. He was predeceased by his wife, Vera (Esgro) DiCarlo in 1991, his siblings, Nicolina Drouhard, Francis DiCarlo, Joseph DiCarlo and Albert DiCarlo. Michael is survived by his son, David (Deborah) DiCarlo of North Syracuse; his daughter, Rosemary (Alan) DiCarlo Rainbow of Liverpool; four grandchildren, Kelly and Michael DiCarlo, both of North Syracuse, Matthew Rainbow of Rochester and Nicolas Rainbow of Liverpool; three sisters-in-law, Jeanne DiCarlo of North Syracuse, Christina Vaughn of Syracuse and Linda Esgro of Solvay along with several nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews and cousins. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 8:30 am in the THOMAS J. PIRRO JR. FUNERAL HOME and 9:30 am in Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Liverpool. Burial will follow in Assumption Cemetery. Family and friends may call at the THOMAS J. PIRRO JR.

Dave, Rosemary, and families, I met your father back when he worked with my Dad at the Post Office, and regularly at any of Joe's family events (mostly weddings and holidays). My father always liked him, and I can understand why. Always a pleasant word, and positive attitude; very much like my father. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Jim Grillo

Dave , Rosemary and family,As we celebrate Memorial Day, may we celebrate the memory,service and love of Michael Carmen Dicarlo. It was a great privilege to know him and enjoy his sense of humor. He always made the members of my family and I feel like members of his family. We look forward to the time when we can all be reunited with our loved ones. When you think about it from an eternal perspective, our earthly journey is but a brief period of time. Before you know it, we will be with Mike again. Until then, let us take comfort in knowing that there is a special place in heaven reserved for special people like him. I can see him in my mind's eye, smiling broadly as he enjoys the peace and serenity of being reunited with his Heavenly Father and his eternal mate.Love, Joe Bebel & family

David and Family,I have such fond memories of your Dad. Especially up at the camp in Canada. I remember him showing me how to filet a bass right on the dock! He enjoyed being with all the family and friends and that made me feel just like family. And what a great smile and laugh Dad had. If I crossed my line up he would just chuckle and help me untangle. My memories will always be warm and friendly as was Mr. DiCarlo. He will be missed by us all.William Ray

I had the privilege of meeting and knowing "Mikey" when he was working for Ramada; he would stop in almost daily to the bank where I was employed at the time. He was always in a good, full of life and was very often the highlight of our day. I remember tearing up when I had to say good-bye to him on my last day at the bank. He was one of those individuals who, though in my life for just a brief moment, left a lasting impression...thank you Mikey...my sincere condolences to friends and family, Michelle Giamartino
