What can I say about my grandmother, she was the most kind, inviting and caring person you could ever meet. I'll miss the days we spent playing canasta or staying up late and listening to ghost stories from you and aunt Sarah while I drink my cool aid and eat my cookies. Holidays it was always so warm in grandmas house and it was always the most anticipated time of the year. I'll miss you grandma and you'll always be in my heart. Nobody can ever replace you. If anybody ever deserved to be in heaven right now it would be you. Tell grandpa I can't wait to meet him and tell my dad I live him and I miss him.

Your life was not an easy one, but you had alot of LOVE and faith through it all. I remember years ago you used to watch Oral Roberts Ministry on "black and white" tv. His motto was "something good is going to happen to you". And you truly believed this. My prayers is that you are now resting in Gods peace and LOVE, free of all your hardships. With LOVE .."Peanut"

Well I was just talking about you the other day to my kids. Saying that you need to meet my aunt Edith because she would laugh all the time. My best child hood memories are when we went to uncle Jim camp and you came down and listened to every word I would say laughing and calling me you're preacher mouth. Love you and I will definitely miss you you're preacher mouth.
