I will always remember This sweet angel 😊. When I worked at Syracuse home I always kept Agnes close to me. I loved her dearly. I think I made her happy when I was there. She'd always smile. There has never been a day go by that I wasn't asking how she was doing. I never left syracuse home at the end of my shift without giving her a kiss and hug and telling her that I loved her. Agnes finally has her wings. God bless everyone. Sincerely, Cynthia Poff
