I have fond memories of Joanne as we worked together for several years at Blue Cross,. That was back in the days before cubicles, our desks were side by side, giving us the opportunity to chat. She always spoke so lovingly of her family, it was clear how much she loved you all. She was a good lady, I know she'll be missed. God bless-Eileen Fahey

Theresa, Joe, Mike, and Karen, my deepest condolences to your family at this time. I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of your Mom. I never met her, but felt I knew her through all your conversations about her. She was loved, and I'm sure she knew it. Love to you all. She was a lucky women having her family close by, and always helping her out. I'm sure that meant the world to her.Linda and Gary Coffey
