The family would like to thank Dr. Siva, Dr. Shapiro and their staff, especially Anna and the many nurses on the oncology floor at Upstate University Hospital for their dedication to MaryAnn.

Terry and Family. I've only met Mary Ann a few times... and can see the love she has for you ... and how she loved all of you... It just broke my heart seeing you all in so much pain....on Monday night... She was so young and beautiful and so unfair... she was taken away from all of you at such a young age... I'll be thinking of you all.. Love your cousin... Sharon Fay

Remembering when I first met MaryAnn "hi I'm MaryAnn Labeff, my daughter Graceann is in Kindergarten." We ended up forming a great friendship. We loved volunteering and we loved the kids. Her advice was always welcomed, point on, and treasured. Often she'd say "don't be so hard on yourself" and my favorite "their lack of planning does not constitute an emergency on our end". She was a great friend who I treasured and who I miss. Love to you all.

We've known MaryAnn and the Procopios since childhood...we lost our dear sister Donna five years ago (she was Anthony's age), so we know the heartache of losing a sibling. MaryAnn was funny, sweet, and kind, and I remember how she used to get after Anthony. Our hearts and sympathies to all of the family...Barbara Rose Burr, Bill Rose, & Tom Rose
