Angelo T. Scarsi

DEC 28, 1916 - JUL 17, 2012

Angelo T. Scarsi, 95, of Syracuse, passed away Tuesday at his home, surrounded by his loving family. Born in Syracuse, he remained a lifelong resident of the North Side. Angelo was a printer by trade; he began at an early age in his father's print shop. He continued at Onondaga Printing, Kaufman DeDell, and eventually retired from Trident Printing. He also served as the secretary for his local printing union for many years. Besides his printing skills, Angelo was a self-taught electrician, plumber, painter and gardener.

In addition to his professional responsibilities, Angelo volunteered as a member of the Civil Defense. Never able to sit still, he was also instrumental in beginning the Golden Ages group at Assumption Church. There he served as a member of the Holy Name Society and ushered every Sunday at Mass.

Angelo's most treasured moments were when he was surrounded by his family. He was the life of any party, and he could always be found on the dance floor at family events. Affectionately known by all as "Papo," Angelo was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

He was predeceased by his loving wife of 71 years, Carmella (Lupo) Scarsi; his granddaughter, Susan Scarsi; his parents, John Scarsi and Lillian and step-father, James LoPresti; brothers, Dominick, Victor and Joseph; and sisters, Mary Muolo, Yolanda Massenzio and Lillian Paikin.

Angelo is survived by his four children, John (Patricia) Scarsi of California, Patricia (William) Halpin of Baldwinsville, Carleen (Paul) Smith of Liverpool and Angela (Tom) Bersani of Liverpool; grandchildren, John (Lisa) Scarsi, Michael Scarsi, Mark (Laura) Scarsi, Christopher (Amy) Scarsi, William (Hollie) Halpin, Shawn (Dana) Halpin, Patrick (Pamela) Halpin, Kathleen (James) Harrington, Anthony Smith, Jonathan Smith, Michelle (William) Santiago, Courtney (Smith) and Ryan Sprague, Tom (Ann) Bersani and Michael Bersani; great-grandchildren, Angelo and Sophia

Uncle Ang was one of the kindest people I've ever known. As a child growing up in my grandmother's house, I would always looked forward to his visits. He had a way of making you laugh and telling stories that would keep your attention. He was a magnet for children. When he came to Florida to visit my mom shortly before she passed away, my own children were sitting on his lap and calling him "Papo" within an hour of meeting him. I had an occasion to visit him with my brother Vince a few years ago and even though his eyesight was failing, his mind was still sharp enough to ask how my wife and children were doing by name.I know that his immediate family will miss him and aunt Carm terribly, but I also know that they will have a infinite number of positive memories to call upon. He was obviously an examplary role model for his children and grandchildren that have all become exemplary adults as well.You lived a long and fruitful life Uncle Ang and I know that I will not forget the times that I spent on Wadsworth Street. Say hello to Aunt Carm for me.Don Massenzio and family
