Mike, Bobby, and family; my deepest condolences for your loss. "Ma Verone" was one hell of a lady, and some of my fondest high school memories are of her giving me the business! She was always smiling, and if she wasn't, we all knew to stay out of her way. She always told it like it was, and she taught us all a few lessons about life. Memories of sitting across the table in her kitchen will always make me smile, and will hold a special place in my heart. Rest in peace, Mrs. V. You will be missed and never forgotten.

I fondly remember Mrs. Verone, and going to her shop on Park St. She was the most helpful woman who would honestly tell my Mom that whatever my Mom wanted me to try on "wasn't right" and let me try on and buy what I wanted!!!! I am sincerely saddened to know that she has passed. I will pray for her, and the family in my Novenas. Respectfully, Melanie Ziel NYC NY
