I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. Please accept my condolences and may my prayers help comfort you. I was very fond of your mother and looked forward to my visits with her each week. The first time I met her, she was showing everyone in the dining hall at PACE how to make cookies. I was one of her helpers and she was definitely in control of the entire kitchen area. She knew what she was doing because the cookies were delicious! She always asked me how I was and what was happening with my family, ever ready with her wisdom and good advice. She truly became my friend. May family, friendship and prayers ease you through this difficult time.
