She was Board Chairperson of Sunfirst Federal Credit Union and she even volunteered as Makeup and Costume Supervisor for The Pompeiiian Players for 35 years. Angie was forever proud of her family and was an avid Syracuse University sports fan.

Besides her parents, Angie was predeceased by her beloved brother, Joseph Flaminio. She is survived by her son, Robert (Mary) Petrarca; her daughter, Stephanie (Michael) Benati; nine grandchildren, Jennifer, Jean, Anthony, Melissa, Robert, Kathryn, Margaret, Danielle, and Christina; and nine great-grandchildren, Samuel, Ella, Aidan, Ryan, Sophia, Charlotte, Hadley, Lily, and Ethan.

Angie was Chairman of Sunfirst Federal Credit Union for many years. I served as its President. She was a staunch supporter of our members. Any proposal that came before her prompted one question: "How will this affect our people?" She was our social conscience and as such, she also supported me during good times and difficult times. I adored her. I only found out about her passing today. I will contribute to her charity to honor her, but I will never be able to pay her back for her decades of moral support and the confidence she showed in my abilities. My deepest condolences to her beloved Bob and Steph. Rest easy now, dear Angie, as your work here was done well. I will miss you for the remainder of my days.
