My sympathy to the family. I remember Alberta from our days at Holy Trinity in the Altar Rosary and working on the Rummage Sales. She was such a hard worker with a good heart. God bless you all. Sally Sessler

To Alberta's Family,I met her through my mom, Dolores, living at the Highland House. Alberta was the "light" at Highland House. Her wonderful personality and her shining smile was so beautiful, and I always looked forward to seeing her. My heart goes out to you all. She is now a light shining in heaven and she will be truly missed. May God comfort you in this time and know she is with our Lord. My prayers are with you. Doreen Piazza
