We just learned of Dom's passing. What a nice man! In the late 1980s, my wife Natalie and I were neighbors of Dom's sister, Josie and her family, Dom's grandfather (also Dominick) and Dom's parents, Tony and Jean. We got to know the whole family through Josie, and we frequented Dom's shoe and leather goods shop in the old Shoppingtown Plaza. It had bern several decades now, but we recall with warmth and affection the entire Tirinato family. The Rabideau's, as well. Please accept our heartfelt sympathies. -Bob and Natalie Kravchuk

We just learned of Dom's passing and we are speechless. Reggie will always remember their basketball championship game together. That game built a lifetime friendship. Lysa will always remember him as "the Bible guy" because he made each an every repair as though the Bible was new. To say he was an awesome guy is an understatement. Kindness is his middle name and we will forever remember him with love. Reggie and Lysa Simmons

I would like to send my condolences to Dominic's wonderful family. I have known Dominic since we were 5 years old at OLP. He was an exceptional human being. I remember him flying above the stage at OLP as Peter Pan, the star of our kindergarten play. In high school at Bishop Grimes, he just became a better version of himself as an athlete, musician, loyal friend, wonderful, sweet younger brother, devoted son, each role served with boundless enthusiasm. May his family find comfort in knowing the positive effect he had on people around him throughout his life, and how much we loved him. I am very sorry for your loss. May God bless the Tirinato family and may heaven shine more brightly because Dominic is now there. Gisella (Marzocchi) Mortelliti and family

Loved Dominic! I especially bonded with him at Grimes over basketball. I remember one day I was warming up with my SU team and we were playing his college women's team. He came to the game and I saw him as I was doing a warm up- layup, in the lay- up line. I was so happy to see him that I jumped out of the layup line and ran over to him to say hello and give him a big hug. We couldn't stop talking and laughing and I got yelled at by my coach to get back in line! I have great memories of this little lefty point guard with boundless energy and a huge, wonderful personality. Not to mention he fixed my shoe for free a few years ago. He was a bright light. I'm definitely sharing your loss. Love and hugs to everyone.
