To my dear Godmother, (Comadi) Josephine. From time to time, I'd recall hearing that recognizable voice of yours & would dwell on good memories. But, it's that "smile" of yours which you're know for & will never be forgotten.. because it always "lit up a room".. no matter where you were, we knew exactly right where you were. So now, when I look up into the Heavens & see our Heavens shining ever so brightly, I know exactly right where you are. I Love & miss you.. my dear "Comadi Josephine". Your Mother was like a sister to me. I always enjoyed being with her. There are so many fond memories of visiting with her at Grandma Verone's house. I often tell people we didn't need therapy because every Sunday we would gather at Grandma Verone's house and talk, eat and share all our problems etc. You now all have a heavenly angel watching over you all. She loved you all and was so proud of all that you have accomplished. She was a very delightful lady and we all loved her deeply. She will truly be missed by all of us. Love, aunt Joanne Verone
