Virginia is survived by her son, James A. (Angela) Albanese; her daughter, Mary Ann (Bing) Weakley; 5 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; her sister, Carmella DeMauro, along with several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Special thanks to The Cottages entire staff for the excellent care, love and compassion they showed to BEEBE. They are truly Angels on Earth doing God's work.

Maryann it is sad to see your Mom has passed. I was fortunate to know Virginia and all the sisters and brothers on both the Mignacca and Albanese sides back in the mid '60's. Real good times and gatherings every week. She must have proud of Jimmy and you and the families you created. God give you strength in the days to come and cherish the memories that you have of your Mom.

My beautiful Aunt♥ I love her. To my family, I am sorry for the loss of your Mother/Grandmother. I always enjoyed Aunt Beebe's fun humor, her fantastic opinions, and when she would get laughing and couldn't stop. My mother has been making us laugh with stories of the years they worked together and we have been laughing and loving these memories. She was definitely one-of-a-kind! I will cherish every memory of my beautiful Aunt Beebe. I love all of you. Donna Albanese-Jones
