I am posting this thought as a representative of the entire "CAROMA RESTAURANT FAMILY" to offer our most sincere condolences to the family of "THE BOX." Nick was truly a most unique personage and a really good guy and one of our most loyal customers during the four decades we were open at "400-402 Lodi Street- where "home hospitality prevailed." I myself would run into him at Bridgeport OTB repeatedly and I hope he has forgiven me for all the "stiffs" that I gave him at VernonDowns, the Meadowlands and Yonkers Raceway! He will most definitely be missed by our entire family JOHN A. D'ADDARIO MD, son of Peter "Sonny" & Mary Gelormini D'Addario, proprietors

Nick & the Barricella family. Please accept our Heartfelt sympathy & condolences for the passing of Nicky "The Box". He was a very genuine and thoughtful man. It was a pleasure spending time with him when I was coaching you at the Eastwood Bears. We had some wonderful times when we went to Boston for the Thanksgiving Day games. Ed & Betty Ferrante
