At Loretto, Tony lived on the same floor as our sister Nancy, who passed away in 2017. He and Mary were so kind to Nancy and we always enjoyed visiting with them. Tony loved to sit outside and enjoy the fresh air and often greeted us when we arrived for our visits. He was a wonderful, gracious man. Please accept our sympathy and prayers; Heaven is a much better place now that Tony is there! Rest In Peace, Tony.

To the entire Basile family, Your father was a class act. He was honest, hardworking and loyal. My father enjoyed doing business with your Dad for all those reasons and more. We enjoyed the next generation too! Lovely family, Peace to you all.
