Jenny & Matthew - my Mother (Nora) & I had the pleasure of meeting Minnie during their mutual stay at Iroquois last fall (2019) - they quickly became dining mates and I know that my Mother greatly enjoyed having someone so genuinely kind and intellectual to visit with. As I often 'sat' with my Mom for dinner, I got to know Minnie - and what a pleasure & treat it was! Incredibly intelligent, yet down-to-earth, and such a wonderful sense of humor! She taught me so much in a short time. I am sure from having met both you & Matthew that Minnie's legacy will continue on through both of you, as well as, the rest of your wonderful family. My most sincere condolences for your loss - I know we are never truly 'ready' for it regardless of their age. Sorry for taking so long to reach out to you (I am way behind in reading the newspaper...but am old-fashioned & that is my way). - with Sincere prayers, friendship & love to all of your family. - Barb Lynn

My sincere condolences Jenny! I loved your Grandma Minnie and we had so much fun on our Alaska trip. I loved the tribute video. I will always cherish those memories and never forget what a spitfire Minnie was staying up later than us partying at the casino and dancing at the clubs lol. She was a true inspiration and joy to be around always. You were the BEST granddaughter in the world and showed her the world. You were the apple in her eye that always gleamed when she talked about you. Cherish all the wonderful memories you have. Big hugs and love to you! Your friend always Lori

My husband Dave and I watched the beautiful service for our friend, Minnie. She was one of the strongest, most vivacious woman I ever knew. She always met life head on no matter what came her way. I always told her, "Minnie", when I grow up, I want to be just like you." And I meant it. We both will miss her very much. Evelyn and Dave Blovat Onondaga Star #144 OES

We loved Minnie at the gym. We used to call her "Mom", because she was so loving, and so much fun! She did all the exercises with us, and amazed us! She spoke so often of her daughter and granddaughter- she will be greatly missed. Nancy
