Carmella V. (Mignacca) DeMauro

AUG 6, 1925 - JUL 14, 2020

Carmella V. (Mignacca) DeMauro, 94, passed away July 14, 2020 at The Cottages in Cicero. She was born in Syracuse, daughter of the late Frank and Mary Catherine (Damico) Mignacca. A communicant of St. John the Baptist Church, Carm retired in 1985 as a lab technician from General Electric after 22 years of service. In retirement, she and her husband Daniel enjoyed traveling with the Catholic Golden Agers. After her husband's death, she took many trips with her best friend Maria Misita to Florida and Italy. Most of all, she enjoyed her daily coffee visits with her sisters. Carm loved cooking, baking, and sharing her special eggplant parmesan with her family. Most of all, she looked forward to preparing large meals for her weekly Sunday visits from her children and grandchildren.

She is predeceased by her husband, Daniel J. DeMauro, Sr. in 1993; five siblings, Phillip Mignacca, Mary Carulli, Paul Mignacca, Nancy Aloï and Virginia Albanese.

Carmella is survived by her children, Joseph (Connie) DeMauro of Liverpool, Frieda (Leonard) Vannelli of N. Syracuse, Frank J. (Linda) DeMauro of Brewerton, Daniel (Linda) DeMauro, Jr. of Syracuse and Mary (Anthony) Barraco of Liverpool; 13 grandchildren, Michelle DeMauro, Daniel (Chantelle) DeMauro, Natalie Ann (Paul) Fisher, Leonard Vannelli, Frank A. (Jessica) DeMauro, Mary (Jay Landry) DeMauro, Michael, Nicole, Daniel and Corey DeMauro, Anthony Barraco III, John and Joe Barraco; 2 great-grandchildren, Mia Fisher and Franklin DeMauro; sister-in-law, Theresa DeMauro; brother-in-law, Peter Italiano, along with several nieces, nephews and cousins.

The family would like to express our appreciation to Carm's caregivers who made such a difference in her life, especially Yolanda & Lisa Fero and Tracy Vaughn. We would like to also thank the staff in house #31 at the Cottages in Cicero for their care of our mother for the past year and a half. Special thanks to Laura Russell for her love and endless face times during the last five months of forced separation due to the pandemic.
