Lisa J. Romano

MAR 22, 1949 - SEP 19, 2020

Lisa J. Romano, 71, of Syracuse passed away on Saturday, September 19, 2020 after a 2nd battle with cancer. Born in Syracuse on March 22, 1949 to the late Larry and Joyce Romano, she owned and operated a professional gardening business for many years. She was an accomplished artist, self-taught musician, and song writer with a beautiful voice. Her ultimate passion, however, was creating beautiful perennial flower gardens. In her final days with us she was cared for deeply by close family and friends.

Lisa is survived by her brothers, Joseph, Larry, and Nicola Romano.

lisa was one of the sweetest, kindest, and most exceptionally talented and hardworking person i have known. i knew her in many capacities.....her doctor, her devotion to her craft as a master gardener, as a server at the century club.....but most importantly as a friend. she came from a great family with exceptional values and she was truly loved by all she came in contact with. i will miss her terribly.mark vanhusen, md

Rest in Peace you were the best Romano ever my dog loved you and would run over to you and let you pet her and cuddle her and she doesn't do that with anyone but you. You offered friendship like your MUM beautiful flowers thoughts and conversations over the back fence. I will miss you and grieve your loss from my life and our neighborhood.Gods speed in your journey be reunited with those you loved, smile down on us that loved you. Diane Holbert lit a candle in honor of Lisa.

I can see her beautiful, constant smile and I can hear her laughing at a bunch of drunk girls on many a girls' weekend. I can also hear her holler "SHUT UP BACK THERE! YOU'RE DRIVING ME CRAZY!" The year she was our girls' weekend designated driver. I knew how she felt the one year I was DD for that event. I remember what a vision she was in her lemon yellow dress at a wedding where she sang. Always generous and patient. Always kind to animals and all living things. She so loved her Mocha that it broke my heart when she had to say "Goodbye" to her. I cherish my 45 with her songs on both sides. All day long, I couldn't stop thinking, "For cryin' out loud I can't believe you left."Love, Lady Di

Lisa was a great neighbor and friend who cared for our plants with her green thumb while we were away. They always looked better we she gave them back to us than when we gave them to her. She will be missed.Dave and Pat Murray
